

Qrcus strengthens SAP specialist Expertum Group

25 September 2024

The Limburg-based SAP service provider Qrcus joins the Expertum Group. This partnership allows Qrcus to leverage its functional SAP knowledge and unique expertise in Expertum's services and projects. Expertum gains access to deeper and broader functional expertise within the SAP landscape. As a result of this collaboration, Qrcus is also able to offer its clients a wider range of services.

Specific expertise and strong identity

Qrcus has traditionally focused on broad SAP functional services and has succeeded in acquiring leading clients in the southern Netherlands. Its SAP Treasury partnership makes Qrcus' services particularly distinctive. Expertum contributes knowledge in both the technical and functional domains, such as S/4HANA and Analytics. Additionally, Expertum has significant experience with SAP's cloud & innovation platform, BTP. This collaboration creates broad and complementary services in both the Netherlands and Belgium.

Shared culture and added value of the partnership

"Qrcus has earned its reputation by consistently adding value to its clients through the dedication and advice of its experienced, driven, and passionate SAP consultants, and its direct and loyal way of doing business. That same approach towards clients and the similar company culture strongly appeal to us in Expertum," said Janne Meijers, Managing Director of Qrcus. "The partnership with Expertum offers our consultants a unique opportunity to continue our services on a larger scale, as well as to relieve our clients with a wider range of additional services provided through this collaboration with the Expertum Group."

Important strategic step forward

"With this, Expertum is taking a big step toward realizing our growth goals in the functional SAP domain," said Sjoerd van Middelkoop, CEO of Expertum Netherlands. "Our partnership with Qrcus allows us to further enhance our services in S/4HANA. Moreover, we can introduce our clients to the unique expertise Qrcus has to offer."

New combination

In addition to joining the Expertum Group, a management change is also taking place at Qrcus. Ger Beckers is stepping down as an executive. His responsibilities will be taken over by Managing Director Janne Meijers and Peter Dassen, who recently joined the board. In the coming period, the focus will be on exchanging knowledge and experience and further optimizing the services that can be offered to clients.

With Qrcus joining the Expertum Group, Expertum grows to approximately 100 employees in the Netherlands, reaching a total of 225 employees across Europe (Belgium, the Netherlands, Croatia, and Slovenia).
